Special notes and instructions for California National Guard attendees:

1. A $100 deposit is required to hold each room at the Marriott Waikiki, our designated hotel. Personnel that have not already paid their deposit may call the conference POC to determine availability as some personnel have released their rooms because of mobilizations. Room deposit refunds must be requested not later than 8 August 2005.
2. The Marriott Waikiki has extended their NGAUS conference rate of $142.00 per night for the period 13 through 22 September. The actual conference dates are 16-19 September. To take advantage of the additional nights, simply indicate the entire period you want to stay in the "ACCOMMODATIONS" block above. Any nights prior to 13 September or after 22 September will be charged at the hotel's prevailing rate. All conference participants are guaranteed Partial Ocean View rooms. For a description of these rooms and the hotel's amenities, go to <http://www.marriottwaikiki.com/home.html>.
3. Hotel room accommodations (minus the $100 deposit) are payable directly to the hotel upon checkout.
4. Each registration fee includes $35 to cover morning and evening food and beverage in the California Hospitality Suite. As a condition of the hotel, this is a "closed" suite open to California members and their paid family and guests only.
5. All registration fees are due not later than 2 September. These fees include the NGAUS conference registration and fees for additional ticketed events (e.g. Fun Run, Golf, etc.) The California Hospitality Suite surcharge is included in the NGAUS registration fee and is not optional. Make checks payable to California NGAUS Conference Fund and mail to the address provided on form. Refunds for conference registration and ticketed events must be requested prior to 13 September. Hospitality Suite refunds must be requested prior to 2 September.
